These are from the celebrated lot discovered in autumn of 1839 and spring of 1840, near Castine, Me., by Capt. Grindle, which were undoubtedly deposited by Baron Vincent De St. Castine, when driven off by the Massachusetts Expedition, under Gov. Sir Edmund Andros, in 1688.

Vide in last Vol. Maine Hist. Soc. Col, an article by Judge Williamson, of Belfast, Me.

Their authenticity may be relied upon.
